THE GOVERNOR IN ROBESON.

The Lumberton Robesonian gives an account of the political speeches at Lumberton on Tuesday last, of Col. Hargrove and Gov. Caldwell. Col. Hargrove said he gloried in being called "a black Republican." He discussed no questions of interest—but his speech consisted of attacks upon the last Legislature, giving his own record as a politician, and telling anecdotes.

Governor Caldwell entertained his audience with reminiscences of the war—the pay of soldiers $11 per month—the aristocrats took the high military offices while the privates were fed upon mule feed—the diet of convicts at the Penitentiary—"about chickens in their bread, crickets in their heads, and two much brine on the fish, or two fit the." The Robesonian forget which. His charges against Judge Merrimon were repeated, and also the Governor's excuse for not capturing Lowrey.

H. B. Lowrey's wife was present, and seemed to enjoy the Governor's speech amazingly.

The following is the impression made by the Governor on a correspondent of the Robesonian:

EDITOR ROBESONIAN:—I have been a customer all my life to take an active interest in the political affairs of my county, and have always given respectful attention to both sides of every question. But the dirtiest, meanest, filthiest speech I ever heard was delivered by Tod R. Caldwell to-day. I am not surprised that H. B. Lowrey's wife would come down to hear him and his Academy on the way down. She seemed evidently pleased with her little flirtation with the Governor, and will, no doubt, use her influence among her subjects to his advantage.

Lumberton, N. C., May 23.

BUTTE.

This is from the New Orleans Times of Friday last: "The two Confederate Senators who represented this State in the Senate down to the fall of the confederacy met yesterday for the first time for a long period, and took a glass of wine to the success of Old Greeley."

GOV. CALDWELL'S SINS OF OMISSION.

Governor Caldwell was President of the Senate in 1868-'69, when LITTLEFIELD, THE SWINDLER, waved his enchanting wand over the Radical Legislature.

Governor Caldwell must have seen that was going on. He could not have been ignorant of what the whole country knew.

Littlefield kept a free bar, under the Governor's nose, in the capitol building, with which to bribe and debauch the Legislature in passing his pet measures, and aiding him in his plans of spoliation and theft. That arch villain, whose magnificent rascality astonished and startled the State, carried on his schemes of fraud and corruption in open day—boldly, unblushingly, recklessly.

He held the Radical Legislature in the hollow of his hand. The nod of Jupiter and the trident of Neptune were not more potent in the days of antiquity than was Littlefield's influence with the bribe-takers and political thieves who sold their votes for dollars and cents, and who sold themselves to immeasureable, fathomless infamy, by betraying the high trust reposed in them as Legislators, and turning their State over into the hands of her plunderers and destroyers.

We say Governor Caldwell, from his position as President of the Senate, must have been cognizant of what was going on. To say that he was not, would be a charge of stupidity against him which would disgrace a simpleton.

The President of the Senate, even if he had desired to do so, could not have shut his eyes against what was constantly transpiring within his view. He could not stop his ears to the loud murmurings of complaint that came up from all parts of the State.

Even before Littlefield consummated his plans, the mutterings of the storm were heard in the distance. The people became alarmed. Suspicion had developed into positive belief, and Democratic speakers and newspapers sounded the notes of warning. The public believed that fraud, and swindling, and bribery, and embezzlement, and wholesale stealing, were going on, and that influential and leading Radicals were consorting with the rogues and rascals.

What was Governor Caldwell doing all this time? What did he do to check the course of the wicked men—his political friends—who were crushing down the poor old State, and grinding her beneath the heavy load of debt and wholesale plunder under which she now staggers?

What did he do to stop the corrupt schemes of Littlefield and Company, by which North Carolina was plunged into overwhelming poverty and ruin?

What did he say when the State was being robbed of fifteen millions of dollars, while he was President of the Senate?

Did he make any attempt to save North Carolina from the clutches of the Radical harpies who were gorging on the hard earnings of our people and devouring their substance?

Did he raise his voice in denunciation of the swindling schemes that were enacted right before his eyes?

No! NOT UNTIL THE RUIN WAS WIDEGIRTH—NOT UNTIL THE RASCALS HAD FLED—NOT UNTIL THE STATE HAD BEEN SHAMEFULLY ROBBED—NOT UNTIL THE EVIL WAS DONE, DID OUR IMMEDIATE GOVERNOR DENOUNCE THE VILLAINS AND CURSE THE THIEVES!

Now his Academy, in his speeches, is terribly indignant about Littlefield's conduct, and calls him all sorts of bad names. He speaks of his efforts to capture him in Florida and abuses Governor Reed of that State for not surrendering Littlefield on his demand.

This is forced in the extreme and only subjects his Academy to ridicule and laughter. His attempts to capture Littlefield all end in a fit subject for one of the finest burlesques of the age.

We charge that Gov. Caldwell, while Speaker of the Senate, stood by and saw the State of North Carolina plundered of millions after millions of dollars, without one word of denunciation.

We charge that it was his duty to have attempted to expose and defeat the thieves before they had ruined the credit of the State, and struck down her financial power and prosperity.

We charge that he was as silent as the grave when the swindlers were carrying out their schemes before his eyes, and that he did nothing to protect the people and the honor of the State until the evils had been consummated.

Such a man is not worthy to be trusted with the high position of Governor of North Carolina.

His sins of omission are CRIMES for which the people of North Carolina should not hold him guiltless.

GOV. CALDWELL OBJECTS.

When Judge Merrimon left Governor Caldwell at Fayetteville, he told the Governor that any of his Radical friends would be allowed to meet him (Merrimon) at his appointments, and Judge Merrimon of course thought the same country would be extended by Gov. Caldwell. In this Judge Merrimon has been mistaken, as the following correspondence between Major Engelhard and Gov. Caldwell will show.

Upon the Governor's arrival in Wilmington, Maj. E. addressed him the following note:

OFFICE OF THE JOURNAL,
WILMINGTON, N. C., May 18, 1872.
Gen. Tod R. Caldwell, Lumberton.

DEAR SIR:—At the request of Judge Merrimon, I write to ask if you would consent to divide time with a representative of the Democratic-Conservative party at either of our appointments at Wilmington, Smithville and White.

I will be obliged to you, in order that proper arrangements may be made with your friends, if you will answer this letter while in Lumberton.

I am, very respectfully,
JOS. A. ENGELHARD,
Chairman Conservative Ex. Com.
Third Congressional District.

In answer thereto, Governor Caldwell sent the following:

WILMINGTON, N. C.,
May 23d, 1872.

J. A. Engelhard, Esq., Chairman, &c.

DEAR SIR:—Your favor of the 18th inst., asking for a division of time with a representative of the Democratic-Conservative party at my and Col. Hargrove's appointments in Wilmington and other places, was handed to me at Lumberton.

In reply, I have to say that since my arrival here I find that our friends have made the appointment for the speaking to commence at 8 o'clock, P. M., so that there will not be time for more than Col. Hargrove's and my speeches. I have no objection to dividing time with my competitor, Judge Merrimon, at my appointments, but I do not think I would be doing justice to myself or my party if I were to consent to meet a new man every day or two at the different points where I am to address the people.

Very respectfully,
TOD R. CALDWELL.

Maj. Engelhard, commenting on the correspondence, says that he will be present at Whiteville, Gov. Caldwell's appointment, and shall ask for a division of time, and if Gov. Caldwell consents, Hon. O. P. Moore will address the people in behalf of our cause, and our candidates.

CALDWELL'S BOTTLE HOBBLER.

Mrs. Ford having no opposition appeared to take things easy, and in no hurry to strut upon the stage.

A square he had whose name was Tar. That in the adventure went for hair.

And he took a little more than half in the matter of time and attention. By the aid of two or three blurring glasses of whisky, which he swallowed raw, without either winking or blinking, he managed to extend his few remarks through about two hours and a half of the evening. — Wilmington Journal.

The above is the introduction to the Journal's account of Col. T. L. Hargrove's speech at Wilmington. Col. Hargrove made about the same speech in Wilmington that he did in Robeson, a reference to which is made elsewhere.

Col. Hargrove says he is following Caldwell around to act in the capacity of the Governor's bottle-hobblor. As he took the first chance at the contents in Wilmington, and emptied the bottle before his Academy appeared upon the stage, we are afraid he is transcending the duties of his position.

The Governor gave him a hint to this effect when the former began his speech and complained of Hargrove for having robbed him of his time, saying that his "friend Hargrove had Ku Kluxed him to night and unceremoniously captured the best part of his campaign speech."

We would say to Col. T. L. Hargrove, in the capacity of bottle-hobblor, to encroach upon his Academy's time, and we quote the following for his especial benefit: "Ne suto ultra crepidam."

If Hargrove Ku Kluxed Caldwell at Wilmington, he was only paying the Governor for his having Ku Kluxed Hargrove at Oxford.

A NORTH CAROLINIAN ABRUPT.

Col. John K. Connally, formerly of Yadkin county, in this State, and Colonel of the 55th N. C. Regiment during the war, is now practicing law in Richmond, Va.

He was a member of the last Virginia Legislature, and is now prominently spoken of for Congress from the Richmond District. A correspondent of the Richmond Enquirer, writing from Charlottesville, Va., refers to Col. K's chances for the nomination and adds:

Colonel Connally is about thirty-five years of age and has a magnificent person. His language is chaste and elegant; his arguments clear, logical and irresistible; his manner natural and easy, and as a speaker, I scarcely know his equal in the State. He lost an arm in the war, which at once enlisted the sympathies of the Confederate soldiers in his behalf. From the public demonstration in the court house, and from the common preference expressed for Col. C., I think I can with safety say he will carry the county in the Convention by a large majority.

B.

Grant's new cottage at Long Branch, now being erected under the auspices of ex Collector Murphy, will be finished about the time Congress adjourns. It is a three-story house, finished in the most elegant manner, and is regarded as one of the finest on the beach.

COMPLIMENTARY.

The last Kinston Gazette contains the following complimentary remarks in regard to the editorial staff of the Sentinel all of which we endorse:

We have before noticed the reappearance of Mr. T. B. Kingsbury on the editorial staff of the Sentinel. Mr. K. is undoubtedly the most polished writer in North Carolina, and his pen will prove a mighty engine of destruction to the radical dynasty in the present campaign, while the State owes Mr. Turner a debt of gratitude for the able and fearless defence which he has so successfully waged against the Radical Inquisition in the South.

Well might Pool & Co. wish to lose him in the Albemarle Sound!

HON. D. M. BARRINGER.

See the communication from this distinguished gentleman in another column. There is no man of Gen. Barringer's age in the State, who takes a more active part in the cause of Democracy, or renders more effective service during our campaigns.

It will be seen that Gen. B. refuses to allow his name to be brought before the District Convention for Congress, although he has been urgently solicited to do so.

THE STANDARD BEARER FOR THE FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

A Large and Enthusiastic Convention at Edenton.

JUDGE MERRIMON MAKES AN ELOQUENT AND ABLE APPEAL.

COL. DAVID M. CARTER TO BE THE NEXT CONGRESSMAN FROM THE FIRST DISTRICT.

The Radical Convention at Plymouth—Cobb nominated.

EDENTON, N. C., May 21.

We accompany this letter with the proceedings of the Convention, which was held in this place yesterday for the purpose of placing in nomination a standard-bearer for the First Congressional District. The Convention was largely attended, fourteen out of nineteen counties being represented, and its proceedings were of the most harmonious order. The balloting for the Congressional candidate evidenced a good deal of interest on the part of the friends of the different gentlemen whose names had been proposed for it, and resulted in the fourth ballot in favor of Col. David M. Carter, of Beaufort. The most prominent names in opposition to Col. Carter were those of Major L. C. Latham and Capt. Thomas J. Jarvis. Upon the first and second ballots, however, the vote was divided between three gentlemen and Messrs. J. L. Mitchell, W. E. Bond, Mills L. Eare, E. C. Yellowly and J. C. Skinner.

The nomination gave entire satisfaction, and will receive the hearty support of the Conservatives of this Congressional District.

JUDGE MERRIMON

addressed the meeting at much length in the most forcible effort we have heard him make this campaign. His remarks were received by the Convention in a manner which evidenced that his efforts to arouse the people of Eastern Carolina to the great importance of action in this matter would prove most effective, and this portion of the State will roll up in August a vote for Judge Merrimon which will reverberate the mountains of Western Carolina.

The Judge is being received with a most hearty enthusiasm on every hand as he progresses through the East, and we are confident no man in the State could have proved more acceptable as a standard-bearer to the people of the First District.

Last night the Convention resolved itself into a

MASS MEETING,

and able, eloquent and earnest appeals were made by a number of gentlemen, Messrs. Latham, Jarvis, Moore, Mitchell and others, pledging their most hearty and earnest support to the nomination of the Convention. Certain it is that the good people of this District are going to work in earnest.

During the evening, information was received that had been nominated at Plymouth, by the Radicals for Congress, and this announcement was received with applause, as Cobb is conceded to be the weakest of the Radicals could have put forward.

We have heard that he met with strong opposition from Joseph Martin, the State Solicitor to that Judicial District, who had been nominated for four ballots. We have heard also that the Convention was not held as far as the Convention, and do not know whether the Jones Young scene at Franklin was repeated. It is thought that Col. Carter, with anything like earnest work, can defeat Cobb with ease.

Judge Merrimon leaves here this morning for ELIZABETH CITY.

In which place he speaks to-morrow. He will then return this way and go to Windsor, in Bertie, where he has an appointment for Tuesday next. He will reach Raleigh about Wednesday evening.

A goodly number of gentlemen were yesterday afternoon

MOST ELEGANTLY ENTERTAINED at the beautiful residence of Mr. Edward Wood, near this place. Your correspondent is under peculiar obligations to J. B. Hall and Capt. Octavius Coke for courtesies shown him, and indeed we have been more than pleased with our visit to this beautiful town, which overlooks the most handsome sheet of water which we have ever looked upon.

Continued drought is complained of in many portions of the South, and in consequence, injury is predicted to corn and cotton.

THE SHADE OF THE TREES.

What are the thoughts that are stirring his brain?
What is the mystical vision he sees?
— "Let us pass over the river, and rest
Under the shade of the trees."

Has he grown sick of his toils and his tasks?
Sighs the worn spirit for respite and ease?
It is a moment's cool hail that he asks,
Under the shade of the trees.

Is it the clear Shennandoah whose flow
Often has come to him, borne on the breeze,
Fancy keeps listening to, lapsing so low,
Under the shade of the trees.

Nay—let us rather believe that his faith
Gazed upon splendor far brighter than these,
Saw the calm shine on the waters of death,
Under the shade of the trees.

Caught the high hymns of adoring delight—
Heard the harp harping, like sounding of seas,
Looked on the holy ones walking in white,
Under the shade of the trees.

O, was it strange he should sigh for release,
Touched to the soul with such captivates as these?
He who so needed the balm of that peace,
Under the shade of the trees!

Yes, it was noble and fitted and best,
Yielding to naught save his Sovereign's decrees,
There to pass over the river and rest
Under the shade of the trees!

Gen. J. B. Gordon to Senator John Scott.

Gen. J. B. Gordon, of Georgia, has written a letter to Senator John Scott, of Pennsylvania, upon the statement made by him in the U. S. Senate, on the 10th instant, that "Gen. J. B. Gordon, of Georgia, was among the organizers and earliest leaders of the Ku-Klux." In his letter Gen. Gordon says:

"It is not for me to contrast my motives, my honor or integrity with yours, but your persistent relation to your place in the council chamber of the nation, of a statement already stamped as a falsehood, demands some notice from me."

Gen. Gordon reiterates his denial of any connection with Senator Scott's Ku-Klux, and then goes on to review the condition of the Southern States since the war, and the outrages and plunder to which he has been subjected, and of which he has been an eye-witness, concluding as follows:

"And it is this diabolism you would continue in the South. Like the tormentor in the Spanish bull fights, you continually fling the bloody flag in the face of the negro, and goad the white man to desperation with the bayonet, that the inevitable conflict may furnish the excuse for the perpetration of your despotism. I pray that the American people may rebuke this spirit in the coming election, and let the reign of constitutional government be once more inaugurated. But be that as it may, I shall not permit you, by my silence, to bolster up the fortunes of a political party by thus dragging my name into notoriety, without asking you to carry also the responsibility of the wilful falsehood you have perpetrated in the effort."—Etc.
